

Labour Force Insurance

Application Form

Notices

1. Intermediary Acting as an Agent for Insurer

In effecting this contract of insurance, Wellington Underwriting Agencies Pty Ltd, ABN 96 622 167 293, AFSL number 51 1660 ("Wellington") will be acting under an authority given to it by the Insurer. Wellington will be acting as agent of the Insurer and not of the Insured.

2. Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before each time You renew, extend, vary or reinstate the Policy. Each person indemnified by this policy has the same duty.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of any matter that:

- reduces the risk,
- is common knowledge,
- We already know, or ought to know in the ordinary course of Our business, or
- We indicate we do not want to know.

3. Non-Disclosure

If You do not comply with Your duty of disclosure, We may reduce or refuse to pay a claim and/or cancel Your policy. We may invalidate the policy from its beginning and not be bound by it if the non-disclosure was fraudulent.

After the policy is entered into, ongoing disclosure obligations can apply. See the policy for details.

4. Claims Made and Notified Basis of Coverage

Some sections of the Wellington Underwriting Labour Force policy are issued on a 'claims made and notified' basis. This means that these sections of the policy respond to:

- a) claims first made against You during the policy period and notified to the insurer during the policy period, provided that You were not aware at any time prior to the policy inception of circumstances which would have put a reasonable person in your position on notice that a claim may be made against him/her; and;
- b) written notification of facts pursuant to section 40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. The facts that You may decide to notify are those which might give rise to a claim against You. Such notification must be given as soon as reasonably practicable after You become aware of the facts and prior to the time at which the policy expires. If You give written notification of facts the policy will respond even though a claim arising from those facts is made against You after the policy has expired. For Your information, s40(3) of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 is set out below;
"S40(3) Where the insured gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to claim against the insured as soon as was reasonably practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim when made by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of the insurance cover provided by the contract."

When the policy period expires, no new notification of claims or facts can be made on the expired policy even though the event giving rise to the claim against You may have occurred during the policy period. An exception to this is under the extended reporting period extension. If an extended reporting period is purchased as provided for in the extension, then some cover for new notification of claims or facts is available.

5. Retroactive Date

If a retroactive date applies to a section of this policy then it means that cover is excluded for any wrongful act occurring or committed prior to the Retroactive Date.

Our policy also contains provisions that exclude cover for any wrongful act occurring or committed by a subsidiary and its directors, officers or employees prior to its acquisition or creation by You.

6. Preservation of rights of recovery

Our policy contains a provision that has the effect of excluding or limiting Our liability in respect of a loss, if You release, agree not to sue on, waive or prejudices Your rights of recovery, or enter into any arrangement or compromise or do any act whereby any rights or remedies to which the Insurer would be subrogated are or may be prejudiced.

7. Privacy Statement

In this Privacy Statement the use of "We", "Our" or "Us" means Wellington and the Insurer unless specified otherwise.

In this Privacy Statement the use of "personal information" includes sensitive information.

We are committed to protecting the privacy of the personal information You provide to Us.

The Privacy Act 1988 contains the Australian Privacy Principles which require Us to tell You that We collect, handle, store and disclose Your personal and sensitive information for the specific purpose of:

- deciding whether to issue a policy,
- determining the terms and conditions of Your Policy,
- compiling data to help develop and identify other products and services that may interest clients, and
- handling claims.

Personal information is information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- (a) whether the information or opinion is true or not;
- (b) whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.

Sensitive information includes, amongst other things, information about an individual's racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, membership of a political organisation, religious beliefs or affiliations, philosophical beliefs, membership of a professional or trade association, membership of a trade union, sexual orientation or practices, criminal record, health information about an individual, genetic information, biometric information or templates.

You have given Us Your consent to collect, use and disclose Your personal and sensitive information in order to provide You with the relevant services and/or products.

When You give Us personal information about other individuals, We rely on You to have made or make the individual aware that You will or may provide their personal information to Us and the types of other parties and service providers We may provide it to, the relevant purposes We and the other parties and service providers will use it for, and how they can access it. If You have not done or will not do either of these things, You must tell Us before You provide the relevant personal information to Us.

We disclose personal information to other parties and service providers whom We believe are necessary to assist Us and them in providing the relevant services and/or products. For example, in handling claims, We may have to disclose Your personal and other information to other parties and service providers such as Our claim management partner, other insurers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, external claims data collectors, investigators and agents, facilitators, assessors or other parties as required by law. We limit the use and disclosure of any personal information provided by Us to them to the specific purpose for which We supplied it.

We may disclose Your personal information to Our insurers, reinsurers, related entities and service providers overseas, including but not limited to New Zealand, Singapore, United Kingdom, the Philippines, the European Union and the United States of America.

If You do not provide the personal information requested and/or do not provide Us with Your consent to the use and disclosure of Your personal information as set out in this Privacy Statement, Your insurance application may not be accepted, or We may not be able to administer Your Policy, or You may be in breach of Your duty of disclosure, the consequences of which are set out under the heading Duty of Disclosure in this document.

If You would like a copy of Our Privacy Policies, would like to seek access to or correct Your personal information, opt out of receiving materials We send, complain about a breach of Our privacy or You have any query on how Your personal information is collected or used, or any other query relating to Our Privacy Policies, please contact Us.

If You wish to gain access to or correct Your personal information, make a privacy complaint, or if You have any query about how we collect or handle Your personal information, please write to:
